MPF Announces Dates for Future Shows

(Buffalo, MN) ... Mark your calendars for the 39th annual Midwest Poultry Federation (MPF) Convention on March 16-18, 2010.

The show – featuring a pre-show nutrition symposium on March 16 and exhibits and educational sessions on March 17-18– will be held at Saint Paul RiverCentre in downtown St. Paul, Minnesota.

Also held in conjunction with the 2010 MPF Convention will be the North Central Avian Disease Conference, scheduled for March 14-16 at Saint Paul RiverCentre.

Further details on the 2010 show will be available later this year. For more information, visit MPF's Web site, www.midwestpoultry.com.

Potential exhibitors may contact Exhibits Manager Theresa Neddermeyer at any time to get on the mailing list and/or inquire about booth space: theresa@midwestpoultry.com or (763) 682-2171.

The 2011 MPF Conventions will be held March 15-17, 2011, also at Saint Paul RiverCentre

Suggestions regarding educational workshop content are welcome. Please direct all general questions and requests for information to Lara Durben at the MPF office at (763) 682-2171; fax (763) 682-5546; or e-mail, lara@midwestpoultry.com.

About MPF:

The Midwest Poultry Federation's primary purpose is to host an annual regional convention emphasizing on-farm poultry production. The convention's goal is to offer cutting-edge information to attendees through a balanced offering of exhibits and educational workshops. The Midwest Poultry Federation (MPF) was formed in 1971 and held its first convention in Minneapolis in 1972. The MPF's membership consists of 14 state poultry organizations, representing 8 states.
